Leadership and Ideas for Tomorrow

Student Handbook 2021-22

Preface

An Institute, like any community, should have some regulations and/or standards with which its members abide by and have procedures with which it functions. The standards provide a secure order and create an atmosphere conducive to intellectual and personal development for all its members. This Student Handbook and the Code of Student Conduct contained within are intended to serve these purposes and provide students with a helpful reference about the IBA Karachi. It includes an overview of the systems in place, a summary of student policies and benefits, and highlights the available resources, services, and activities. The IBA has a responsibility to maintain order within the community and to discipline those who violate its standards, rules and/or policies. As a student, you are expected to abide by the standards, rules and/or policies set forth in this Handbook.

Introduction

About IBA

The IBA Karachi was established as a business school in 1955 with technical support from the Wharton School of Finance, University of Pennsylvania, and later from the University of Southern California.

Over the years, the IBA has evolved from a business school into an institution offering interdisciplinary programs at undergraduate, graduate and postgraduate levels. Hailed as one of the premier higher education institutions in Pakistan, the IBA boasts a network of more than 15,000 alumni spread across the globe.

Vision

To be among the best learning institutions in Pakistan.

Mission

The IBA aims to impart quality education in numerous educational fields to students selected on merit, irrespective of ethnicity, gender, religion, or financial means. With that, it intends to provide a teaching and learning environment that encourages critical thinking, ethical conduct and effective decision making. Moreover, students are encouraged to undertake original research that enriches teaching which benefits business, government, and civil society.

Our core values

Discipline

Discipline requires self-regulation and adherence to an established code of conduct. Discipline facilitates the smooth functioning of the institute and is essential for an IBA student.

Integrity

Integrity suggests the quality of being honest and having strong moral principles. Integrity is crucial to the reputation of individual students as well as that of the IBA.

Tolerance

Tolerance represents the ability and willingness to accept and coexist with other opinions and behaviors. Tolerance is an essential characteristic of successful individuals and societies.

Creativity

Creativity breeds innovation which is critical for an institution to expand its frontiers. IBA students are encouraged to generate new ideas to attain their goals.

Teamwork

Teamwork requires harmonizing individual effort to achieve a common goal. Without teamwork, individual efforts can be wasted, and institutions can suffer.

Commitments and Expectations

The IBA Karachi commits to provide the following to its students:

1. An equitable and supportive environment for all students.
2. Accurate information about the teaching and assessment timetable.
3. Effective teaching supported by appropriate materials and facilities.
4. Prompt and fair grading of assessments.
5. Learning resources (library services, study areas, computer assisted learning, audio-visual resources, computer laboratory facilities, etc.) provided to aid learning.
6. A fair and efficient feedback procedure.

It is expected that all IBA students will reciprocate by:

1. Complying with the IBA's published expectations and rules pertaining to academics and other matters.
2. Abiding by the IBA Code of Conduct and refraining from any dishonest acts, either during examinations or while executing other responsibilities.
3. Displaying a courteous attitude towards staff, fellow students and visitors at the IBA Karachi.
4. Treating IBA's property with respect.
5. Attending lectures on time and submitting work and assignments promptly.

Ingredients of professional training

Self-discipline and integrity are two essential ingredients in professional training. A student's ability to adapt and thrive in a working environment will be reflected in his/her self-discipline.

Academic Guidelines

Attendance

A distinguishing feature of the IBA Karachi is its stringent adherence to the academic calendar. Students are required to attend lectures, laboratory sessions, seminars and fieldwork specified for every course in a semester. The course instructor takes attendance in each class. Late comers are marked absent even if late by one minute; no excuse is accepted. If a student accumulates more than the permissible absences, they are awarded 'F' in that particular course. Students found tampering with attendance records in any way will immediately be expelled from the Institute. The permissible number of absences for students will include participation of the IBA students in conferences/seminars/events, sports at national/international level, an exchange program, religious activities (pilgrimage etc.) and add-drop week.

Permissible absences per semester are mentioned in the following table:

Semester type	Duration of session	Total sessions	Allowed absences
Spring or fall	75 or 90 minutes	28	5 for full-time students 7 for part-time students
Spring or fall	150 or 180 minutes	14	2 for full-time students 3 for part-time students
Spring, summer, fall	180 minutes	12 MBA-Executive only	3
Summer	120 minutes	21	3
Winter	180 minutes	12	2

Please note that no attendance will be transferred from one course to the other. Transfer of attendance will only be allowed across sections of the same course for the first week of the semester. Attendance of classes on the first and last day of the semester is mandatory for all students.

Withdrawal from a course

When posting on behalf of a student organization, students should not endorse or support any political candidate.

Social Media Guidelines

In this era, social media has become a primary source of communication. No matter how addictive it can get, yet one cannot stay too far away from it, keeping the global trends in mind.

It might come as a surprise, but your current employment/student status with your current organisation, your dream job or your future university admission might depend on what you post online. Whatever is posted on any of the social media platforms, goes in the digital archives of the companies who run these mega platforms. Recruiters do a preliminary review of the prospective candidates they intend to hire, and a primary medium to run that review is via social media. What you post on your social media, and the opinions you share along with the language used, all is considered before a job is offered to you. Similarly, many international universities admissions' officers scrutinize a candidate's digital footprint to check for their suitability.

Following are some of the types of post that may land you in hot waters:

- Incriminating or embarrassing photos or videos
- Profanity, defamatory or racist comments
- Politically charged attacks
- Spelling and grammar issues
- Complaining or bad-mouthing

You need to be mindful about the following points while interacting online:

- You should be honest about your identity and must participate only under your own name and should take extra care in safeguarding your personal information.
- You should be respectable and courteous while communicating or posting anything on social media.
- Political opinions and debates must be expressed in an individual capacity and not on behalf of the Institute.
- While acting in an individual capacity rather than on behalf of the IBA Karachi, you must state that they are personal opinions and state it clearly in content introductions or online profiles.
- The Institute is not responsible for any content posted from a student's personal account.
- You are not allowed to use the IBA logo or the Institutes' photographs on a personal or an external site.
- You are also not allowed to post photos from course materials and campus-based presentations on different sites, without the Institute's consent.
- You are not allowed to post any copyrighted material.

It is of immense importance for you to know what language you are using on the social platforms, as the language being used can be termed as libel or worse, within the ambit of Cyber Crime Law called Prevention of Electronic Crimes Act of Pakistan.

Netiquette is a set of rules and the practice of exercising polite and considerate behaviour in online contexts, while engaging in social media participation and discussions. Make sure you follow the below guidelines before you post something online:

- Avoid posting profane, disrespectful comments and sharing inaccurate or misleading information regarding any institution and/or individual.
- Think twice before vilifying an institution and/or individual.
- Avoid any form of bullying or harassment.
- If you have already done one of the above, then delete it from your profile.

There is no harm in using the social media for staying connected with friends and family and expressing your opinions on public forums but always consider the societal norms, legal consequences, and future career/admissions prospects.

Extracurricular activities

Students are advised to conduct all sports and other extracurricular activities within the premises of the Alumni Students' Center and its adjoining sports fields. Musical activities should be confined within the Alumni Center and that too at low volume so that students studying in the adjoining Commerce Department of the University of Karachi are not disturbed.

Disciplinary Committee

The Disciplinary Committee (DC) investigates violations of the IBA Code of Conduct and recommends penalties for the same.

Members of the DC are appointed by the Executive Director (ED).

- Dr. Ashraf Khan, Assistant Professor and Superintendent Boys Hostel (Chairman)
- Dr. Nida Aslam Khan, Assistant Professor (Member)
- Mr. Muhammad Anwar, Chief Librarian & In-charge Research Data Center (Member)
- Ms. Shabana Amirali, Campus Manager City Campus (Member)
- Mr. Haris Tohid Siddiqui, Head of Sports and Community Engagement (Member)

Members of the DC normally serve for 3 years. Terms may be adjusted at the discretion of the Executive Director. Committee members are expected to maintain full confidentiality of matters discussed. At least three members must be present for the meeting quorum to be achieved.

The DC may recommend the following penalties to the ED after carrying out a thorough investigation:

Computing and ICT Services

The Information and Communication Technology department provides ICT services to the IBA Main and City Campuses, hostels, and staff town, serving a total of around 5,000 users on- and -off campus. Student Counseling Center

Student counseling provides mental health support to all students enrolled at the IBA. It addresses students' psychological, emotional, social, and behavioral concerns that include anxiety, depression, isolation, academic stress, confidence and self-esteem, homesickness (in case of living away from home) among various other issues.

Students can avail mental health support through individual counseling sessions by setting up an appointment with the Student Counselor. Walk-in sessions are also provided to students to address a crisis or an immediate need. Students are seen on a first-come, first-served basis for a walk-in session and do not need to make an appointment beforehand. Additionally, the Student Counseling Center organizes support groups, workshops, trainings, and other activities to develop coping skills and disseminate mental health awareness.

All information shared during counseling sessions, including the student's identity, is kept strictly confidential except in cases where it is deemed that the student may seriously hurt themselves or another person, in which case, their legal guardians and authorized persons at the IBA are notified.

To make an appointment, students can visit the Martin Dow Health Center (main campus) or call at (021) 111-422-422, Ext: 2062 or email at counseling@iba.edu.pk.

Student Societies

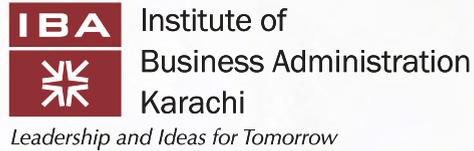

The Office of Student Societies plays an integral part in administering all student activities on the campus, whether through the platform of student societies/clubs or through any other informal platform. It sets a benchmark of commitment, trust, hard work and leadership for all student societies to follow.

The Students' Council has always been an active proponent of on-campus student activities. It tries to create opportunities for students to get involved and gain leadership skills through active participation in student activities on- and off-campus. The IBA Karachi caters to all domains of interests that a student could possibly pursue and if a society/club is not already available relevant to a student's interest, the Institute encourages to set up a committee that would undertake this task.

Currently, there are 30 student societies and clubs operating within the IBA Karachi, under the Office of Student Societies. They allow students to explore and pursue their interests outside of the academic sphere leading to a holistic development of character, ethics and morals that the IBA Karachi promises to instil in its student body.
