IBA earns AACSB accreditation

The Institute of Business Administration's (IBA) School of Business Studies (SBS) earned the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB) accreditation, as per a press release. Founded in 1916, AACSB is the oldest business education accreditation body headquartered in the United States.

The accreditation is awarded after an evaluation process, engagement with AACSB-assigned mentor, a comprehensive review and visit by a peer review team consisting of deans from accredited business schools, and demonstration of alignment with the nine accreditation standards focusing on strategic management and innovation, learner success, thought leadership, engagement, and societal impact. As one of the most widely recognised accreditations in the world, AACSB will further boost the global recognition and employability of IBA graduates.

It reflects the institute's relentless pursuit of excellence, and the rigorous academic standards embedded across its programs. After achieving the accreditation, IBA now enters AACSB's CIR cycles, ensuring sustained progress and alignment with globally benchmarked standards.

As one of the most widely recognized accreditations in the world, AACSB will further boost the global recognition and employability of IBA graduates. According to the 2024 AACSB analysis of Fortune 500 and S&P 500 company data, 73% of CEOs at Fortune 100 companies and 75% of the highest-paid CEOs at S&P 500 companies hold degrees from AACSB-accredited schools, underscoring the impact of the AACSB accredited institutions. Strengthened by this achievement, IBA shall continue to advance business and society by delivering quality education and shaping graduates who go on to lead with purpose and impact.

IBA Karachi, Pakistan's leading and most prestigious institution of higher education, has nurtured generations of trailblazers, with 20,000+ alumni driving innovation and leading organizations across the globe. Equipped with state-of-the-art infrastructure, modern learning spaces, and cutting-edge facilities, IBA offers a world-class education that empowers students to shape the future. Committed to sustainability, IBA fosters an eco-conscious campus community, continuously reducing its carbon footprint through impactful green initiatives.

Here's to the next 70 years of Visionary Leadership, Academic Excellence, and Sustainable Impact.

IBA achieves AACSB accreditation

CITY REPORTER

The Institute of Business Administration (IBA) Karachi's School of Business Studies (SBS) has achieved the prestigious Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB) accreditation, positioning it among the top 6% of business schools globally. Founded in 1916, AACSB is the world's oldest and most renowned business education accreditation body, headquartered in the United States.

The rigorous AACSB accreditation process involves a comprehensive evaluation, including engagement with a mentor, review by a Peer Review Team (PRT) of deans from accredited institutions, and alignment with nine key standards, focusing on strategic management, learner success, innovation, leadership, and societal impact.

If not water, Indians' blood will flow in rivers: Shabbaz

- Calls for unity against India 'robbery of Sindhi'
- Says true heirs of Indus civilisation reside in Pakistan

By FAYYAZ AHMED
 Islamabad, Pakistan (The Express) — A group of Sindhi nationalists in Pakistan, led by Shabbaz Bhatti, have announced a protest against the Indian government's alleged 'robbery' of the Sindhi people. The group, known as the Sindhi National Front, has called for a nationwide strike on September 10th to mark the 100th anniversary of the partition of India. Bhatti, who is a member of the National Assembly of Pakistan, has been vocal in his criticism of the Indian government's policies towards the Sindhi people. He has accused the Indian government of 'robbing' the Sindhi people of their land and identity. Bhatti has also called for the Sindhi people to unite and fight against the Indian government's policies. He has said that if the Indian government does not stop its policies, the blood of the Sindhi people will flow in the rivers of India.

IBA Karachi has reached a major global milestone by receiving AACSB Accreditation — a prestigious recognition that only 6% of business schools in the world hold.

This achievement shows IBA's strong commitment to quality education, research and leadership. It proves that IBA is providing business education at an international standard and preparing students to lead with responsibility.

This moment is not just a win for the institution but also for higher education in Pakistan. IBA continues to raise the bar and make the country proud on the global stage.
