IBA hosts alumni dinner to mark global accreditation

STAFF REPORTER

The Institute of Business Administration (IBA) Karachi held a celebratory alumni dinner at a local hotel to mark its prestigious accreditation by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB), a distinction earned by only 6% of business schools worldwide.

The evening began with welcome remarks from Dr. S Akhtar Zaidi, Executive Director of IBA Karachi, who underscored the global significance of the AACSB accreditation for Pakistan's academic community. The event was smoothly moderated by Dr. Salar Awan, Assistant Professor and Chairperson of the Management Department at IBA's School of Business Studies (SBS).

The dinner drew an accomplished crowd of IBA alumni, corporate leaders, and academic stakeholders. Reflections were shared by Dr. Abdullah Sheikh, Dean of IBA-SBS, and Malahat Awan, Director of Alumni, Resource Mobilization, and Corporate Relations. Prominent guests included Mohammad Zubair, Former Governor of Sindh, and Wasif Rizvi, President of Habib University. Amir Paracha, CEO of Unilever Pakistan, and Sultana Siddiqui, Chairperson of a private television network, They lauded the accreditation as a transformative moment for business education in Pakistan, asserting that it enhances the country's standing on the global academic map.
